Lost Property

A reminder, as we approach the end of term, that the school has a large number of lost property items and articles of clothing. Please check with the office if you think you may have items to reclaim. Anything left over at the end of term will be repurposed or donated to charity.

See Me See Change – The Education Psychology Service

See me see change is an approach to tackling mental health stigma and discrimination in schools. Over the next few terms, we will share a variety of resources and direct you to links to support you with your mental health and wellbeing. The purpose of this is to aid open conversations about mental health in our school community. The Education Psychology Service can help you with challenges you are facing at school, so you can get the most out of your education. They work in a team to help young people with their learning, relationships and behaviour.
