Puzzle of the Week: Congratulations to all Madras pupils and staff who have been submitting answers to the weekly puzzles. The school currently lies 36th out of 168 schools worldwide. Mr Inglis and Mr Trewartha are battling it out at the top of the staff leaderboard. After a short break over the Easter holidays, the latest puzzle went live this week so remember to check the maths department noticeboards for a copy and to submit your answers to the website.

CORRIDORS: The first, second and home economics/tech corridors should not be use during break and lunchtimes. Please only use the canteen and outdoor areas. You should only use this space if you are going to see a teacher, however, please be mindful of exams taking place and take note of any signage.
